Additional Information

Have you attended an AAO-HNSF Annual Meeting & OTO Experience before? Yes No

Do you receive any salary support from the U.S. department where you are studying? Yes No

Eligibility

Applicants must be an international otolaryngologist, studying or completing research in an otolaryngology department in the U.S. or Canada.

The grants are for international otolaryngologists studying in post-residency fellowships in the U.S. and Canada and are NOT available to:

- Citizens of the U.S. or Canada
- Non-U.S. otolaryngology residents or trainees
- Non-U.S. otolaryngologists in paid fellowships
- Non-U.S. nationals studying outside the U.S. or Canada
- Non-U.S. nationals who have previously attended an AAO-HNSF Annual Meeting

Deadline for applications (email only): May 1, close of business. Notifications will be sent by early May.

Submit your application and the following documents by e-mail to international@entnet.org by May 1. ALL DOCUMENTS MUST BE SUBMITTED TOGETHER AS A SINGLE PDF FILE.

1. Your curriculum vitae (short version only - three pages or less)
2. A letter of support from your U.S. department/division chair certifying that you are in good standing in the department and that time will be made available to permit attendance to the AAO-HNSF Annual Meeting & OTO Experience
3. A statement of 300 words or fewer describing your career interests and goals and the events that you are most interested in attending at the Annual Meeting. Present your most compelling argument on why attending the meeting is essential to your otolaryngology-head and neck surgery training and experience and why you should receive a travel grant to this conference
4. Copy of passport
